MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 15.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as sec

WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1267 BROADWAY, between 31st and 32d sts., New York. BROOKLYN - 359 FULTOR ST. HARLEM-Hews Department, 180 Hast 1257H St.; Advertisements at 237 East 1157H St.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEDGER WULDING, 112 BOUTH ST. WASHINGTON -610 1472 Sr.
LONDON OFFICE -82 COCKSFUR Sr., TRAFALE
"I do sir." replied the other.

TEAR DOWN THE CITY HALL.

The City Hall is neither beautiful nor commodious. It is in no way in keeping with the size and greatness of New York. It was built when the city was an infant and has been outgrown.

Tear it down and erect on its site an edifice to which every citizen may point with pride.

The building from which Philadelphia is governed is magnificent to look upon. Chicago's City Hall is an ornament to that city. Other and smaller cities are also shead of New York in this respect.

And there is no reason for it. With these structures as patterns, and a site the better of which it would be hard to find, New York should erect a municipal building with no equal here or abroad. It is not a question of sentiment but of

PIRE IN CARGO OF COTTON.

An appreciation of the feeling of terror comes to the passengers upon an ocean steamer with the discovery that the ship its manifestation. It came to the did you re passengers who rode on the City of Rich. "Hardi mond on its last trip across the main. That fire originated in the cargo of cotton which the ship carried. Such a cargo has been again and again shown to be psculiarly susceptible to fire-producing conditions and to be difficult to handle when burning. Here is a subject for

Not every man has one hundred and Kansas City man had happen to him. He | Was I lying to you yesterday or not !" needed a new cutiele, and he got it. by the transplanting process. Happy said the saloonist as he jerked his thumb

When a man shoots bimself accidentally through fooling with a pistol and pretending that he means to kill himself, somebow it is harder to sympathize with him. It is so nice to see people taught good lessons.

After thirty years' litigation $50,000 will go to the slaves to whom a Kentucky planter willed it. That is, those of them who survived. They settle some points

The wicked editor of a book of referonly fifty-nine. Was there eyer such a crowbar if I hadn't ?"

Senator VILAS is entitled to the con-it is human nature to want the best of ering all circumstances ?" everything.

Alliance farmer from the political to other and flying machine imbined to formatrust. Their stockholders did the same thing.

There is a vigor about the game of base ball that is characteristic of the people whose National game it is.

The London laundresses are following the lead of the ""bus" drivers. They want their rights.

Vesuvius is getting in condition to make an uproar that will make RUDINI green with envy.

Gov. Hill listened to the waves at Seabright yesterday. They should have said ant things.

More depredations by Turkish brigands. Why doesn't some one say '' Boo"

The Chilian Government is a-weary of made arrangements to have young reindeer trans-war. Its President has been directed to ported from Biberia to Alasks. He intends to su-

Ex-Senator BLATE seems to be out of a What are they going to do about

Suburban Day, to-morrow, and its great annual question: Which will win?

Eight thousand people enjoyed the Museum of Art yesterday.

A dollar given to the Sick Baby Fund may save a little life.

New York's streets are shamefully dirty.

An Apt Pupil. From the Journal of Education Counc means to stop.

The Man Who Swallowed a Crowbar I was in Canal street, near Second avenue, the other day, when a tall, thin man, whose shoes were all run down at the even if he had a shirt on, came along with a crowbar on his shoulder. He didn't look at all like a crowbar man. A crowbar, as everybody knows, is a hefty chunk of iron, which must have muscle be- Every Dollar Helps to Save a Little hind it to make its work count for anything. A man who can't pull down about 160 pounds on the scales, and who can't play hoss with a ten-pound dumb-bell, has no call to be a crowbarist. I was wondering if this hard-up, sickly-looking man hadn't stolen the implement somewhere when he stopped L. B. before a man sitting on the steps of a saloon and said :

"You are just the chap I was looking "I do, sir," replied the other.

"Do you remember me?" "I think you were in after a drink, yes. terday." "That's correct. I entered your place Alma.

poor but honest man, and you refused. Not only that, but you ordered me out." "I'm overrun with bliks and dead-crowbar !" utation, sir. Yesterday, when I asked you the corps of free doctors. for a small drink of gin, with a two grain It is a charity that appeals to rich and poor had happened to me ?" ways got a chill or something,"

"That must be a pretty tough morsel to People get. almost utter helplessness which swallow," said the saloon man as he hefted the iron. "It is, sir. It has racked my system so That feeling is one suffering and anxiety, but you refused. " Hardly."

> " Took me for one of the bilks you spoke of a moment ago *" " Yes.

"Well, I am here to convince you to the contrary. I am a poor man, and my looks of hearts. are agin me, but I am no bilk, sir-no bilk! Look at this crowbar, sir!"

" Well !" "Well, it is my proof of what I told you her baby find $1 inclosed. yesterday. Felt something in my throat sixty friends who are willing to be this morning, and after a severe struggle I skinned for his sake. This is what a brought this up. Look at it! Heft it! "Go in and Tom will give you a nip," > over his shoulder. "But have I cleared my reputation?"

"You have," "And I am no blik?"

" No." "Then I accept your apology and will interview your man Thomas, and perhaps imbibe a very small glass of brandy. I suppose brandy would resuscitate my system the quickest of anything, wouldn't it ?"

"Very likely." "Then I'll take brandy, and I hope this dren a happy holiday in the country amid birds and flowers." will be a solemn warning to you, sir! in the West with more expedition than There are bilks, of course, but there are also unfortunate men. You ought to have acumen sufficient to judge between them. nce puts Belva Lockwood's age at Do you suppose I'd have the face to come Fund. seventy-one. The lady declares she is into your place and say I'd swallowed a

"Scarcely," replied the other in an ab sent way. "Certainly not! You could very easily sideration of all who love roast turkey. prove me a llar, and then I'd deserve to be He owns one of the largest cranberry kicked. I judged you to be a humane, tender hearted mcn, but rather impetuous, and have therefore taken this trouble to se "Why do Englishmen marry American myself right in your estimation. Would women?" asks a contemporary. Because two fingers of brandy be too much, consid-

"I'll make it that, and occasionally, as I The ever famished potato bug has put go past, I'll drop in to let you know my in an appearance, and is likely to draw the condition. Merciful and tender hearted, but rather impetuous. Did you say three

The ealoonist jerked his thumb again. and the crowbar man shouldered his iron. entered the saloon, and stopped in the door to say:

"I understand I'm to use my own judgment whether it shall be three fingers of four. Thanks for your confidence. I won't take over five at the very most."

WORLDLINGS.

One of the twenty-three widows of the Revolution whose names are on Unole Sam's pension roll is Mrs. Maridy Smith, who lives in Newman, Ga. She as garrullous old lady with a remarkable me for her country's history and despite her great age and decreptinde her mind is vigorous.

Andrew Carnegie has the short, thick-set figure that characterized Grant, Messeonier, and many other notable "little" men. He weers a full gray eard, and his eyes are gray and kindly.

Lady Brooks was a great "oatch" in her girl-hood. She was then the presty Miss Maynard, with a large fortune and a host of suitors.

No man ever figured more distantefully in a wood-cut than Dr. Seward Webb in that wood cut through the Adirondacks. The Superintendent of Education in Alaska has ourage the natives to demesticate the animals and ne them as beasts of burden. Sararate, the vielinist, as a small man of swarth; plexion and black hair. He is a Spe birth and is forty-seven years old. He is extrava-gantly popular in his native town, to which be pays

Played Out

rom tired, overworked women and weary, anxious nen, who do not know where to find reitef. For that intense weariness so common and so discour-aging we carnestly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is not a stimulant, but a true toute, gradually silding up all the weak organs in such a way as t

Hood's Sarsaparilla

100 Doses One Dollar

The Babes Are Sadly in Need of the Free Doctors.

heel, and who had no collar to his shirt. Hot Weather Brings them Suffering and Death.

Life.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS "The Evening World". Little Josie Lawrence B. Ben Everett. and asked you to lend a helping hand to a

" Every dellar beins to save a little life. What more powerful appeal on behalf of the sick bables can be made than those few beats," said the saloonist, by way of ex-cuse. "What are you doing with that course." What are you doing with that which will procure for them the "I have brought it here to clear my rep- medicine and food prescribed by members of quinine capsule in it, what did I tell you alike. To help, either by a large or small contribution, in the work of administering to "I don't remember, you fellows have alment houses, carries with the donation "I told you, sir, that I had swallowed a coupled with the conviction that crowbar, and that it was causing me conthe pleasure of a good deed done, coupled with the conviction that siderable uneasiness. You treated my state- of the money, but that every penny is apment with indifference and contempt, and plied to its best possible use in hiring comdrove me out into the world to die! It's no petent physicians to look after these little fault of yours that I am not a corpse at this ones and bestow upon them the same care and attention that the darlings of wealthy

There is no time to be lost. The weather is very warm now, but it will be warmer, and the sooner the doctors start on their rounds is on fire at sea cannot be conveyed by that I won't get over it in three months.
You could have saved me a great deal of in hundreds of cases help may arrive too late bead, and are made in a variety of sizes, and
in hundreds of cases help may arrive too late bead, and are made in a variety of sizes, and
in hundreds of cases help may arrive too late bead, and are made in a variety of sizes, and
in hundreds of cases help may arrive too late bead, and are made in a variety of sizes, and
in hundreds of cases help may arrive too late bead, and are made in a variety of sizes, and
in hundreds of cases help may arrive too late bead, and are made in a variety of sizes, and in hundreds of cases help may arrive too late bead, and are made in a variety of sizes, and the more good can be done. Preventive To children of well-to-do parents this appeal | both oval, round, and marquise, and are sewn reserved for those alone who When I told you yesterday that I had swal- is particularly directed, as they are better flat on to the material. Trimmings formed of meet the circumstances which cause lowed this crowbar you didn't believe me, able to compare their surroundings with those of the tenement house nfants, to whom a can also be obtained, and these are used for breath of pure air is a rarity, and a seaside outlines and borders. trip or a ramble through fields and woods an unknown luxury.

Get to work then, and send in your pennies. dimes or dollars and help to swell the fund handsome costumes are quite elaborately which brings life and happiness to hundreds trimmed with buttons. Darts are made rather

Brief and Pathetic. To the Editor:
To save some mother the agony of losing

A Ten-Dollar Bill.

The inclosed $10 is for the Sick Babies Fund. Little Josie's Quarter.

Inclosed you will find 25 cents to help the LITTLE JOSIE.

Money and Scripture. To the Editor: Inclosed find a dime. Come every one to the front, and remember that "Inasmuch a ye have done it unto these my little one ye have done it unto me."

G. M. S.

With Good Wishes.

Another Little One Saved. Inclosed please find $1 for the Sick Babies'

Rose and Ethel wish the needy little chil-

E. AP.

A Baby's Offering. To the Editor Please find inclosed $1 in my baby's name for the little suffering bables.

LAWRENCE B.

Inclosed find five cents, from LITTLE BEN EVERETT, age seven, of 315 West Fiftleth street I will send more next week.

It Will Help.

Inclosed please find 15 cents for the Sick

Babies' Fund, trusting it will help some little one. F. Brown, 852 Eighth ave. A Two-Year-Old.

to carry with any costume. To the Editor Inclosed please find #1 to mark the second anniversary of my birthday, with best wishes the most unmistaxable manner demonstrated

It Is Not a Trifle. To the Edito

Inclosed you will please find the small trifle of $1, being Dondy's birthday. Gluck Appel's Money.

did not know, maintained with much persist-ency that woman did not possess scientific Mamma has just given me my week money here inclosed. I think it will do the sick ba-bles more good than it will do me. LIFTLE GLUCK AFFEL, 117 East One Hundred and Third street. ess, and defended her sex so brilliantly that

SPOTLETS. The Prince of Wales, as banker, is having a good

It must be Spring wheat to spring from such a field as that.

Sir William Gordon-Cumming never held a better with bated breath and baited books

A trout to estab, assume it is,
But when he homeward goes he looks.
As if he'd caught the "rheunatit."

— Herkshire News.

Rawfeley's steal cannot be called a tempere Warning to blowers. A whale was blowing about a pilot-boat and got run down by it. He will never blow about anything again. Goodword's little girl is given to tears, and he precipitating a cry-sis. It is not often that the babbling of a Brooke can bring on such a dainge, is it?

Unpatriotic.

[From Hunsey's Weekly.]

Which do you consider the greater general, Vashington or Wellington t" "Wellington. He was hardly ever defeated, but Washington gots licked every time a let-ter is stamped."

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR. TALK OF THE STAGE WORLD. SIX

THE WORLD: MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 15, 1891.

Delight the Gentler Sex.

Short Basques Lengthened

with Frills of Lace-Fans

for Evening Wear.

o America early in the seventeenth century.

and sides, which makes a very dressy gown.

Finding the bluc-jay so shy in New England,

Olive Thorne Miller has gone to Colorado to seek the "camp bird," a cousin of the jay, was doesn't know the meaning of the word

For evening wear just now fans are tied to shoulder under a rosette. The telescope fans slip in the pocket. The most universally used fan of the period is the silk or paper Japanese the scientific gifts of women, she fought many a gathering in the house of George Eliot.

an elderly gentleman, whom Mme. Kovalevski creative power. Mms. Kovalsvski at once took up the gauntlet, encouraged by her host ing agreed that she had got the best of the ar-time afterwards, lett, George Elliot asked

Mme. Kovalevski if she knew whom it was she had vanquished, and the latter heard then, to Triumph of Johnny.

he lion's share of that orange. Johnny-Yes, 'in.

[From Harper's Sasar.] Mamma-Johnny, see that you give Ethel

Ethel—Mamma, he hasn't given me any. Johnny—Well, that's all right. Lions don't

For the Best of Reasons.

my son."
"Why, father?"
"Then you'll never be shot in the back."

A Matter of Principle

(From Murery's Weekly,) "Keep your face towards the foe always Herbert spencer.

her areat surprise, that it was none other than

When the gentleman, some little a gallant battle for . * women's rights."

yellow, black, blue or tan mull.

Fads, Fashions and Fancies That Impressario Abbey About to Leave Australia.

Mull Hate in Great Demand - Jet Jefferson and Florence to Follow Figures Used with All Colors-Mansfield at the Garden Theatre.

Henry E. Abbey, according to the latest news, expects to be back in this city in the early part of August. He is very rejoiced at the way things have turned out. It is not generally known that this undaunted man-The mull hats are now out in full force, and odd enough it seems to write that the pretilest ager went to Australia in great trepidation. of them are trimmed with a feather pompon the was a good deal frightened and algrettes amid the soft shirrings and the possibility of Sarah's failure in the Antipode's. Australia's own roseties of the cream, gray, pink, manve, the Williamson had told him that the great actress would not be appreciated in the tar-off land, that the people would resent the extra charge for seats, and that French was not a popular language. Vain tears! Sarah went like wild-fire. She will sail from Australlia August 5. Her impressions of that country have not as yet been made known. They will undoubtedly be interesting. Sarah is never prejudiced, even though there is cold cash in the scales. She always has her little criticism. "I can't say I liked my audiences," she said to the writer when she returned from Havana a few years ago. Such edious people! I don't believe they understood a thing. But they smoked and expectorated, and as long as they could do that they were happy." What will she think of the Australians? We must bide our little time before we can discover.

It is said that the dainty Isabelle Evesson dster of the equally dainty Estelle Clayton is going to make her first appearance this sea. comic opera in the Lillian Ruesell Comic Opera Company, Miss Evesson has a deasant little voice that she used on one ocusion, when she was trightfully and pathet, cally nervous, at the Broadway Theatre, for the benefit of the New York treasurers. Her appearance in comic opera will be quite in-

A young actress who has not as yet set any iver on fire and who has just returned from a Western tour had a very sorry experi-She told the story to an intimate friend, with strict injunctions that she should reveal it to nobody; the intimate beliotrope, rose, bright blues, and grey, and friend told a boon companion, and the friend told a boon companion, and the boon companion told somebody else. It appears that the young woman appealed rather guyfully to the audience. The following pathos appeared in her part: "I want some bread. I am starving." No sconer had she uttered the words than a gallery boy threw a bag of crackers at her. They hit her head and broke her up. The rest of the role was played in a tearful and subdued manner, very much in keeping with the part. the new jet cabochons are immense favorites.

Buttonholes edged with gilt or silver braid are chic with buttons of these metals. Several handsome costumes are quite elaborately man and the Lyceum Theatre.

in and one costumes are quite elaborately trimmed with buttoos. Darts are made rather low now in the lining and the outside material draped without them as much as possible.

The oldest woman prescher in this country is the Rev. Lydis Sexton, who was born in New Jersey in 1709, and who sill preaches in various parts of the West. She predicts that she will live until 1900, thus extending her life into there conjuries. Mrs. Sexton is grand-into the recommendation of the work of the will live until 1900, thus extending her life into there conjuries. Mrs. Sexton is grand-into the recommendation of the work of the w into three centuries. Mrs. Sexton is grand-At the close of Richard Mansfield's engage-ment at the Garden Theatre, Jefferson and Florence will play a four weeks' engagement at that house. They will be succeeded by Lillian Russell and Co. daughter of Marquis Anthony Cozot, who came the has many relations in New Jersey, Indina, Onio, Dinois, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas and Washington. Her memory is excellent and her sight remarkably good. Her voice is clear and melodious, and she delights to sing sacred songs to the congregation.

Short basques are now lengthened by frills of laces, sometimes headed with passementeric or velvet, under which the basque is first slightly lengthened, and the lace sewn at the Bottom of the Sea."

William A.Brady says that he has definitely shelved "Thou Shalt Not," and intends to sell it. He thinks that he can easily find a customer. Mr. Brady declares that he could make monley with it himself, but he has had enough of a piece that will cover nobody with food next season, to wit: "Sport McAllister," a farce comedy for Bobby Gayler: "The Clemenceau Case," "After Dark" and "The Bottom of the Sea."

edge. All slik gowns are fashionable trimmed Charlie Chatterton, Henry E. Abbey's well-known secretary, has completely recovered from an illness that nearly proved fatal. He had his passage bought for Europe, but his physician advised him not to go. He will spend some time in Atlantic City. Mr. Abbey was so interested in his young secretary's health, that he cabled from Australia, at the rate of $5 a word, to know how he was. Charlie Chatterton Honry E Abboy's well with lace, and a few soft woollens, in tints of rose or heliotrope, have been trimmed with ace and velves with excellent effect. Even cotton gowns show added frills or basque of white or ecru lace, and in this fashion have also a similar flounce of lace round the front Wilfred North has just issued a useful little theatrical book, entitled "The O. K. Theatrical Guide." In his preface he says that he makes no applogtes or excuses, and this is an amount of self-denial on his part that is truly gratifying. The book contains a list of the theatres in the cities and towns of the United States and Canada, a list of the travelling companies for the season of 1801-2, the names of the critics and other agreeable information.

ong ribbon streamers that fusten on the right Thomas Q. Seabrooke, who is going to star in Bill Nye's play, "The Cadi," will receive two acts of the comedy this week. Mr. Sea-brooke has now recovered the use of his leg. are infinite in variety and come from 10 cents up to $1. They are chiefly used for shopping and travelling, as they are sufficiently short to Miss Marie Hubert Frohman will appear in three plays at Asbury Park Aug. 25 for the benefit of Tuk Evening World Sick Bables' Fund. designs, which begin in the folding fans as low as five cents. For $1 pretty ones of gold or silver Consistency is Not a Colored Jewel [From Munery's Weekly.] Rev. Blowhard Blucher, colored, denounce Before the late Prof. Sophie Kovalevski had ing the extravagances of his congregation)ttained to the height of her fame, and thus in tells yo', brederin an' sistern, jewelry had its origin mong savages.

Deacon Sharp (interrupting)—I beg yer pahdon, Brudder Blucher, but whar yoʻrigi nate yer own se'i'r The Lesser Evil. [From Munsey's Weekly.] Lawyer Grind (whose office is across the all from the dentist's)-What is your object in having that bagpiper playing in your room his pain any? Dentist Snaggs—I am doing that for the cent of my neighbors. The music deadens he patient's cries. Lawyer Grind—Well, if that is the reason awyer Grind - well, it that is the reason as may shut off my part of it hereafter. I cought if the music made it any easier for e patients I'd try to stand it. But if it's for benefit, I prefer the howls. He'd Seen a Nickel Clock. [From the Jewellers' Weekly.] Wrong Chin—How muchee little lawtchee French Jeweller-A hundred dollars. Wrong Chin—Oh, lata! Me glettee 'melicar lawtch heap muchee blig slix dollee.

[From Muntey's Weekly.] "How are your new neighbors? Sociable? "Oh, yes. Very. They've borrowed four pounds of butter, ten eggs, a step ladder and ten yards of hose inside of twenty-four hours."

[From the Yonkers Statesman.] Ella-Pa says we can't marry for ten years (From Saturday Seeming Herald.)
"Just look at that messenger boy sitting But don't look so sad, George; you are young "Just look at that messenger boy sitting yet.

George—Yes, I know I am, dearest. I was nt with thinking of myself, but of you, love.

It was put off indefinitely.

Is Superior to Every Other Known. See latest U. S. and Canadian Government Reports.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Suits to Order $15.

sen Air. We guarantee the color for one year. They are the sicest goods for Summer

A full line of samples, with easy self measurement guide, sent on application free of charge. JACOBS BROS.,

229 BROADWAY, opp. Post-Office. 152 and 154 HOWERY, cor. Broome

The Latest from the Fiji Islands.

King Totem-How did you like the new mis onary ? Prime Minister—He made me sick.

A Clothes Observer.

Poker Rules.

Three of a kind beat two pairs

VACRANT VERSES

From the Library Window. The clock ticks loud at the foot of the stair,
The house is perfectly still;
I am asleep in the Summer air,
With my head on the window-sill,

The lawn is bathed in the warm June sun, And Phyllis, with treeses black, Whose heart I thought I had surely won, Is playing tennis with Jack. I thought that her brown eyes knew no guile, But they shine the same bright way, And they look at Jack with the same sweet smile.

That they gave me yesterday. My turn to serve," I can hear her call; She knows I love her, and yet. Hhe treats my heart like the tennis hall She is sending across the net. The distant waters gleam in the sun,
The breeze blows cool from the bay:
They have dropped their reckets, the set is don
They are coming, I think, this way.

She sits her down on the rustic seat Which under the maple stands. It's well amough to sprawl at her feet. But he needn't take both her hands i He speaks, but I cannot hear a word, Her cheeks are red as a rose, The maple leaves by the wind are stirred— Can it be he means to propose? Her sweet lips move ; is it no or yes? The faint, soft sound I mins; But what he means inn't hard to guess, There's no mistaking a kiss!

Oh, Phyllis, Phyllis, my faithless love; I believe she's kissing him back; I can't stand this any more, by Jove; I'm going upstairs to pack;

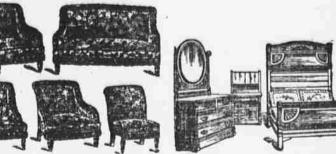

What and Where.

Mischievous Tommy, He hears every day A homily simple He haars every day
A homis simple Regioning this was:
"Now. Formmy, you mustn't."
And. "Tommy, you must."
And. "Tommy, you must."
And. "Tommy, stop running.
You'll kick up the dust."
You'll kick up the dust."
And. "De not go swimming
Or you will get wet."
And. "De not go salling
Or you will upset."
And. "De not be wrestling.
You'll fracture your bones."
And. "De not go silinbing.
You'll fall on the stonges."
And. "De not be whildling.
You're not a mere hird."
And. "Good little children.
And. "Good little children.

Which Johnny on hearing, Excisions. Deary me! What can a boy do, And where can a boy be!"

THE regular use of MONELL'S THETHING CORDIAL liaring teething averts the diarrhosa. 25 cents. "."

CAUTION.—WE DO NOT TRY TO MISLEAD THE PUBLIC BY QUOTING FICTITIOUS TERMS, BUT WE GUARANTEE LONGER TIME AND EASIER TERMS THAN ANY HOUSE IN THE TRADE. A VISIT TO OUR WELL-KNOWN ESTABLISHMENT WILL CONVINCE YOU OF THE FAUT.

Bedroom Suits, $10 Up. Everything warranted as represent id or money refunded. Goods delivered free of charge everywhere.

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES.

Baseball Championship Standings as the Week Begins.

This Is the White Wings Week Gossip of the Ring and Field.

League and Association clubs as fellows for the baseball champtonships:

The games in the American Association yesterday resulted as follows: Louisville 3 St. Louis 0; Baltimore 12, Athletic 9; Cincinnati 6, Columbus 3.

Foremost among the growing sporting organizations is the Englewood (N. J.) Field Club, an assolution which was organized June 16, 1887, for the purpose of enjoying out-of- City Marshals that they are not permitted to door sports. They purchased eight acres of do business in some sections, although the ground in the Spring of 1888 for $3,200. law does not restrict them in the service of and now since William Walter Phelps, process to any part of the city. The reason Minister to Germany, has offered to present for this seems to be that some other City them an acre and a half of land adjoining the Marshals have strong pulls with the powers Club's present property, and likewise offered to subscribe $250 to the building fund for a their bailiwicks under penalty of the disclub-house, the Club has decided to erect a pleasure of the Tammany leaders, which structure to cost about $8,000. It will con- might result in their removal from office by tain a gymnasium, billiard-roem, bowling the Court of Common Pleas, alleys, reception-rooms, janitor's apartments and other conveniences.

Altantic Vacht Cinh Begatta, Tuesday, this

Wednesday: New York Yacht Club fleet out and the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Clubs on Saturday. A great week for the white wings. the very youthful Barondess.

ball team from the old management. The Marine and Field Club and the Manhat-The Marine and Field Club and the Manhat-tan Athletic Club will have a joint cance hands are very soft. But he bears one ugly regatta on Gravesend Bay next Saturday. trace of his baseball days of battling in the The first race will be called at 9.30 A. M. The shape of a broken wrist. His left wrist is nts are unclassified salling, tandem pac

Denver citizens have bought the local base-

Saturday was a great day for lovers of all sorts of sport. And Tirk Evening World Sporting Extra was, as usual, equal to the day.

Ernest Roeber has accepted the challenge of Matsuma Kara, the newly-arrived cham-pion Japanese wrestler, to wrestle any man in America for #250 to $500 a side, mixed style and Japanese style included.

. . . There is a prospect that Billy Barnie will soon cease to manage the Baltimores. Vice-President Walz has a managerial bee in his bonnet.

The University of Pennsylvania baseball Yale out in the series. . . . Boston comes again June 26. If the Giants can hold their gait till then, the Hub won't be in it.

President Fulda, of the California athletic Club, has made public a long statement of the Club's position in regard to the recent Corbett-Jackson fight. After telling of the efforts of the Club to encourage legitimate sport, Fulda says the Club has been imposed upon many times, and was forced to make rules for its own protection.

The men were instructed to a finish fight, but refused. Each had victory within his grasp but dared not take it. The referee could come to but one conclusion—that both the principals decided not to take any risk and preferred to save their friends' money and their reputation in preference to keeping the agreement with the Club.

Nothing . . .

Hoffman-Marks. The marriage of Miss Fannie Marks and Mr.

Philip Hoffman was celebrated at Arlington Hall last night. The bride looked very pretty five couples partock of a sumptuous repast. The happy couple received a number of costly and unique presents. in a gown of rich white satin. About seventy afford to miss it.

A BOX FOR $5

FLIRT'S. FLINT'S

FINE FURNITURE

CLEARANCE SALE OF

REMNANTS---ODD LOTS Patterns that did not take. 10 TO 50 PER CENT. OFF. Pixin figures on each piece, often but one of a kind. Some a trifle behind the time; some a little previous, will be fashionable next sesson. But the floor space is limited and must all be had for new Fall styles.

GEO. C. FLINT CO., FURNITURE MAKERS,

104, 106 AND 108 WEST 14TH ST.

THE CLEANER. I hear of complaints from several of the new Residents in East Twenty-sixth street are The eighteen players that participated in thoroughfure with asphalt. It is through that the Association basebail game at Cincinnati street that all the ambulances git out on their yesterday were arrested and reported to the errands of mercy from Bellevue Hospital or re-Police Court. The Prosecuting Attorney of turn laden with their freight of human sufferthat Court says, however, that he will not 15g. Their clatter over the trap block pave-prosecute any more such cases and the Judge ment was almost continuous and deafening says he will only put them on the open and hardly conducive to sleep. The change is a great boon to a suffering community.

I hear that Joseph Barongess, the leader of week; Marine and Field Club yacht races, the clouk-makers in their recent strike, became a father a short time ago, and as a on Thursday; regattas of the Staten Island result, Coroner Ferdinand Levy is a godfather, having agreed to stand in that capacity for I saw Graham the other day. He used to be fielder with the Giants two years ago. He told me he was through with baseball. Gra-considerably disturbed where the bones were dling, senior sailing, cup race (four miles and a half), challenge trophy race (seven miles and a half), and consolation sailing (four miles and a half).

Italian women cannot help being pictur-Italian women cannot belo being picturesque. They nearly always have some

The two Columbia crews at New London, headed by their coach, Applegate, of '86, have taken up their quarters at Gale's Ferry. In Capt. Christopher Brown's big square, white massion, which stands on the lofty left bank of the charming river. Ever since Columbia has sent a crew to the misfortunes of others; but when I remember that all your previous admirers are bankrupt, I must consider myself fortunate that it is an off year.

The two Columbia crews at New London, headed. I saw one, yesterday, with a little figured shawl around her shoulders. It was of the brightest plnk. The children have the most old-fashloned look in the world. They are small women, with little of the quick, happy movement of childhood about them.

Two or three pots of geraniums and white consider myself fortunate that it is an off year.

Jim Hall and Bot. Jim Hall and Bob Fitzsimmons, who are to fight to a finish at Minneapolis July 29, arrived in that city yesterday morning. Hall does not like a letter which Fitzsimmons had published a few days ago to the effect that their meeting in Australia was a fixe. The men met in a saloon and several hot words passed between them, and they would have come to blows had not friends interfered.

> I met Mr. Edgar Saltus last evening. He was looking very well. Saltus expects to go abroad soon to spend some time. Doubtless he will write a new novel while he is away. The best hours for work with him are in the morning. "Pickled Muscles" is the rather cannibal. listic sign displayed in a restaurant at the

was made upon it by the passers-by yesterday. However, everything goes in that part west end of Coney Island. Much con

Cleaned 11115+11 out, BANKERS&B as well as STOCKS thingthat VERNM 411114 Nothing does its work as well, as easily,

Hever peddled,

as quickly, or

as cheaply. It divides the labor with you, and doubles the result. With it you Or a box seat for $1 for the great can wash the finest clothes Strawberry Festival if you apply to the Madison Square Garden ticked effice at once. Gilmers and 10,000 children we'l be there. You can't work carelessly. JAMES PYLE.